Miss Ester Pennington

Dear friend
 I will take this opportunity at once, your most, welcome, and
 highly appreciated
 letter that come to hand this and I was glad to read your
 few remarks Ester
 I heard that ~~that~~ I
 you heard that, got down to, am, when I went to town let
 is a, life, and ever

onno, told it told
 a life. Eeter I men
 got drunk I will stand on a stack
 of ~~the~~ Bibles a 1000
 feet high and swor
 I was not drunk
 I heard that you
 wished I would af
 come up there this
 eve. if I new you
 had at head I had been drunk I would
 af come up there and
 was cuttin up with
 one foot back me
 and a laping and

(B)

Patsy am I ever
 proud I ever got
 drunk you sd you
 had your opinion of me yesterday you no I ~~am~~ wouldn't get drunk for nothing ~~am~~ I thank more of my self than that. It is a low down
 trick in my daddy
 you no I thank more
 of my ^{self} than that I wa d do of you if you
 don't thank my thing
 of me all you will
 haft to do is just to let me no if you

want to go back on
me I would commit suicide I expect I am
a fool about you and you no it I could tell you how I love
you I could go with you you dont no show I felt sure you will tell me about you hearing that it sure did make me mad at the fellow
that told it I stay
all be sure and come over Friday night to the ice cream supper
at my Palmer

I ~~to~~ have got late to tell you dont get mad with me dont
believe a nigor and ~~dont~~ believe me for
I am right I ~~was~~ I would not tell a girl
a story specially you
and I am tired to night s and excuse
bad writing and bad
spelling I raimoin at your amuses loving
sweet heart you men
and that question
I asked you sa and my hopping to hear from you soon. Fred Land

(JH)

I will write
more next

time I rainman
as usual
at

There is money change
in the weather there
is money change in the sea the are rising
change in miles faster
but there is never
no change in, ml.
