

Miss. Esther Pennington

Dear old friend:

It is with so much pleasure that I attempt to answer your welcome letter, Esther I will be glad to have you to come this evening. Esther I would like the best in the world to go to preaching today.

But can't not.

I hope you will have a nice time.

Esther, Maggie snatched that note out of my hand I never will forgive her, Oh, yes I well I can't be that bad.

Those pictures that you drew was sure
pretty

Esither you ought to be ashame to let your little baby sister walk over hear wh the hot sun while you
prince and go to preaching but put her through well I must close for Bessie is harrasing
me

I am your affection
friend

S & Dampford