

Tuesday eve

Dear Home folks.

Just a line as I am sending some money, I hope this will find you all well, as for me, about the same. I am writing this at the Post office, hope you can read it.

I got a letter from Dorothy today, they are O.K.; she said they took some pictures and she would send me one if they were good.

I got a pay-day today, altho it was not much, I get more pleasure out of sending it to you all than I do using it my self. you give Denver

and Emma (1) one dollar a pice and put the rest on the ~~Taxes~~ Taxes. Dont let them wast Their dollar.

I sent Lillie a pretty birthday Folder; Guess I will get my things that I wrote for you to send, in a few days I am in a hurry; I dont have any news, Answare as soon as you get this. ~~T~~

Love,
Lenard.
