

"Monday night."

Nov-24, 1941

Dear Dennerd:

How are you Tonight? O.K. I hope, as for me I am about as usual except I have a rising under my right arm, however it is much better now as the Dr opened it last Thursday, it sure did hurt, and it is still pretty sore.

How did you like the funny books? how are you getting along in school? O.K. I hope. where did you get the new bird dog? I hope he is a good dog. Maybe we can hunt with him some Xmas. I will be glad when I can come home. Have you been helping Ellis work much? I know you are glad he come home. you did not tell me wheather they charged you bus fare or not.

2

Has Ellis let you ride the Colt yet? oh yes, you know it is just a month untill xmas, what do you want Santa Clause to bring you? I dont guess he will get to come to me, but I hope he does. I may get 5 days off for xmas. So y do you all like that new syrup? wish I had some of it and some good Corn-bread and sweet-milk & Colt butter. Do you parch very many peanuts? say have you all killed a hog yet? maybe we can kill one xmas. How is Howard? kiss him for me when you see him. I dont have any news, ans soon, Low, Lenard.