

Monday:

June 1, 1942

Dearest Home folks:

Just a few lines to let you hear from me again, hope this will find you all o.k. I am about the same as usual. Guess you will be suprised to hear from me as you owe me a letter, but as I got paid today, I thought I would write a line as I wanted to send some money. you know I want to help you and I can't be there to work myself. How are you all getting along with the Crop? O.K. I hope. Have you sold any tomatoes yet? hope you have good luck with them. How much are they paying for to notes?

I sure hope you have good luck with yours.

Say Ellis, have you got your questionnaire yet? hope you don't get one. I am sending you $20.00 dollars, I don't know wheather I will get to send you that much next time or not, but I will if I can. mama; You can get your mother's day present out of this. Did you all go to Church yesterday? I went last night. I got a letter from Emma Dean this past week, they were all ok. Well, I got two graduation presents today for those girls. I got 3

them a pair of hose a piece.
I hateated not to get them something. Guess you all are very busy now; I am not on duty today. Say; you know we might get a raise in our pay about July 1st; too about $42.00. a month.

Say; are there very many plums this year? guess that Corn there by the tomatoes is real pretty. Oh yes; I am writing this letter here at the u. S. O building at town, maybe you can read it. Say moma; I don't want you all to say anything to anyone about that last letter I wrote you, as I know some people would do a

I got this letter messed up, I will try to do better next time.

lot of thinking. How is Dorthey and family? Ok. I hope.

Say, Ellis, have you laid by any corn yet? Guess that there by the tomatoes is real pretty. Guess you all will be chopping cotton pretty soon.

I went out here to Mr Luce's yesterday eve. Say, how is the irish potatoes? Guess you have set out some sweet potatoes by now.

Say Dennerd: how is your and Ellis foot by now? Ok I hope. well: it wont be long until the 4th of July, hope I will get to come home then. You all write me as soon as you get this, trusting I will hear from you soon.
Love, Denard.