

Monday:

As I got your other letter today at noon just after I had just finished writing you all a letter, but I had not put it in the mail. Guess I would have got your other letter (that you wrote me Thursday) yesterday (Sunday) if I had been here, but anyway I got both of your letters.

Say mama, I know Lillie knew that you worry enough anyway, guess that is the reason she did not say anything to you about their trouble. Sorry to hear about Howard had the thrash, hope he is o.k now. Glad the pictures were good, sure would like to see them, but it would make me so homesick. I would have like to been there to go to Church, I went last night. Did anyone help Bro Tunnell do the preaching and did they get any new members? Mama you better be careful about getting so hot, you know it is dangerous.

Say Ellis, ^{you} shure ought to go to Church some anyway; as you may want to go real bad sometime and you might not have a chance to go. Have you tryed to work the Colt any yet? you better start trying to work her. How is the Cotton holding up? guess it is pretty. How is Della and family? I havent heard from them sence I was at home. I better go as I dont have any news; take care of yourselves and am real soon.

Ad. Guess I will Love, have to send Emma & letter to Dallas.

Lenard.

other letter today since I began writing this letter, the other letter had the wrong squadron number on it, but I got it any-way. I bet you and Joe-Ann did have a big time. Guess you all will make Emma Dean stay at home for a while now as you were gone when she got home. I don't have any news, ans real soon and tell me all the news.

Lenard
