Dear Home folks;

Just a few lines to let you all know I got back up here o.k last night. I got to sleep a good bit on the way up here, guess Ellis will get home today. It sure did come a big rain on us coming back up here, we had to stop for a while as it was ~~raining~~ raining so hard you couldnt see to drive. Has it been raining much down there? hope not. Guess I will hear from you all today or tomorrow. I had another tooth pulled last Friday, guess I will have another one put in, as it was a front tooth. I think we will get a half a day off today as it is a holiday. How is Dorothy and family? I havent heard from them since I was down there. ans soon. Love, Leonard.
