

But night:

Nov 6.

Dear Home Folks:

Just a few lines as I don't have time to write your letter which I was glad to get yesterday and to learn that you all were O.K., hope this finds you all well.
I am about the same.
It sure is cold here
now, but still very dry.
I will ans your letter in a day or two. Say Denmark I havent got those peanuts yet that you was going to send me. The reason I did not write a letter is that it was so late when I got to town and it is after 10 o'clock now. Tell Alford he better ans my letter. I bet it is cold there now. Ans soon.
Love, Lenard.
