

HE LOVES THEM TOO

from Rev. Sam T. Mayo

"Brown yellow, black, and white,
all are precious in His sight."
This is a favorite song of children in the Sunbeam Band or Sunday School. The boys and girls who pick the beans you like to eat love it too. They like to play, to sing, to listen to Bible stories, to eat. Glad hearts await the arrival of the missionaries to conduct services each afternoon when these children come from the fields.

They are clothed in the garments that Baptists of the Southland send them. Their faces are washed with the soap, wash cloths and towels furnished by Southern Baptists. The Bibles they read are supplied by Southern Baptists. The Saviour many of them receive is introduced by the Home Mission Board of the Southern Baptist Convention.

"How shall they hear without a preacher, and how shall they preach except they be sent?" They are counting on us.

Let us pray that with the coming of the new church year in Oct. that we might be able to increase our gifts to the Cooperative Program, and that the Lord might even call Missionaries from our Church.

"HE IS OUR PEACE"

If all mankind, this very day,
Would read Gods word, then obey,
This weary world, with all its sorrow,
Could bask in peace by noon tomorrow.
