Dear sis read your letter. I glad to hear from you but sorry to hear your back is hurting you hope its better by now I am up but about give out after this moveing Jack and Lou came down and helped me all they could they ^{came} on sat maria and went back Sunday I been moved to weeks this coming sat but the Pople that moved out left the Place in such a mess till I dont no when ever I will get it all cleaned up I had a letter from mabel they were OK only bad colds she said thire was a Lady Friend of mares Crow that taken Mary and I down to see Curtis last Sat we went and came back the same day he had fell against the bath tub and frachurd to of his Ribs and had a skine cancer cut off his lip Poor Curtis is in a bad shape I had a letter from him to day and he said if he gained enough strength that he may try and come next week end I wish he could be with us for Thanksgiving I guess Jack and Lau ar coming for that day I wish you could be here with us I dont no when I will get to come will I get a little money out of the home place at last I wish they could sell the rest of the Estate soon it sure is cold here this mornin we have a frost looks like a snow I had a card from Mrs Gentry she said she was crazy to come and see the place I want to wash if it warms up well Xmas will be about the same as has been in the past but if the Lord will give me health and strenght I am thankfull for that why dont you come and take thank giving and Xmas with me dont waite for me as I will have to stay here now its cold weather as I will ^{have} to be here to cut of the water to keep the pipes from freezing so come if you can I will get up and wash dishes now so rite me soon

love your sis
