

The Lufkin Roundup

JANUARY 1971

FROM THE PRESIDENT'S DESK . . .

FELLOW EMPLOYEES:

WE can always look back over the last year and see many of the errors we have made. We can also visualize the judgment that we should have used in most instances.

Maybe a good way to start the New Year is to look at the major mistakes in life and endeavor not to make them. Consider these fourteen errors:

1. To attempt to set up our own standard of right and wrong and expect everybody to conform to it.
2. To try to measure the enjoyment of others by our own.
3. To expect uniformity of opinion in this world.
4. To look for judgment and experience in youth.
5. To endeavor to mold all dispositions alike.
6. Not to yield to unimportant trifles.
7. To look for perfection in our own actions.
8. To worry ourselves and others about what cannot be remedied.
9. Not to alleviate if we can all that needs alleviation.
10. Not to make allowances for the weakness of others.
11. To consider anything impossible that we cannot ourselves perform.
12. To believe only what our finite minds can grasp.
13. To live as if the moment, the time, the day were so important that it would live forever.
14. To estimate people by some outside quality, for it is that within which makes the man.

Therefore, to begin our year right we need to wipe our slate of all prejudice or grudges, and start with a clean sweep. Learn to say thank you, and smile when you say it. Take a little more time to appreciate the good and the beautiful, and I guarantee you will feel better this year.

Best wishes for a Happy New Year.

FOR FOUR nights Bob Poland, right, spoke to the employees about Lufkin Industries. Johnny Long, personnel director, left, was master of ceremonies at each banquet.

THE ONLY 45-year award presented this year was to Miss Mary Lamonte of the Houston machinery sales office. Bob Poland made a special presentation of her bracelet to a loyal, faithful employee.

AWARDS Presented at Festive Occasions

Lufkin Industries' first annual service awards banquets were held in early December at Hotel Angelina. A total of 819 attended the dinners to receive their tie-tacks or bracelets from R. L. Poland, president.

Invitations were mailed to 1001 home plant employees, and 107 notices of the awards program were mailed to the machinery and trailer sales branches throughout the world.

This brought to 1108 employees with five years or more service who were eligible to receive awards. This meant 82% of the 1001 home plant employees attended one of the four banquets.

"We are very proud that so many of our people came to the dinners," Poland said. "We appreciate their interest and their feeling so much a part of this new program," he added.

It was a source of great pride that 30% of the people who work at Lufkin Industries have been with the company for 15 or more years. Ten percent have been employed here for 20 or more years. A grand total of 54% of all employees have been with the company five years or more.

Each banquet was a festive occasion. The tables were decorated with art objects made from pieces of scrap metal obtained from throughout the plant. These were created by Mrs. Dorris Storey assisted by her husband, Joe Storey, foreman in the Welding & Structural Shop.

Musical entertainment was provided Sunday afternoon by Miss Pam Smith, Angelina College student, at the organ. The following nights, the Lufkin High School choir, directed by E. C. (Buddy) Fezell, sang a medley of Christmas songs. Accompanying the choir were Jack Buckhannon, piano; Steve DeVries, lead guitar; and David Atwell, bass guitar.

President Poland spoke at each banquet, acquainting employees with business of the company and suggesting what the future of Lufkin Industries might be. He talked to each group without benefit of a written speech and directed his remarks particularly to the plant group attending each night.

Johnny Long, personnel director, was master of ceremonies at each dinner. He asked those attending to carry back to their spouses the company's apologies for their not being invited this year. Due to the tremendous number of awards to be presented this first year, it was impossible to include them for lack of space at the hotel.

It is hoped that the wives and husbands of employees may be invited next year since the awards are being given at 5-year intervals. It is estimated that about 20% of the number involved this year will be eligible for awards next year. If this holds true, there probably will be space enough to invite the wives and husbands.

On this and other pages in this issue are pictures taken at the banquets by Ben Hooker, company photographer. Each person in the picture will be mailed a copy of the group picture, compliments of the company. These will be mailed sometime after the first of the year.

Since space does not permit all the pictures to be used in this issue of THE LUFKIN ROUNDUP, the remainder will appear in the February issue.

Shop Talk

TIM Martin, son of TILMAN MARTIN, Accounting department, returned in October from a year's tour of duty in Vietnam. He was a Navy Electronic Technician at Nah Be.

Tim plans to return to SFA to complete requirements for his bachelor of science degree.

J. D. PINNER, Welding and Structural Shop, first shift, brought in the head of his huge buck, a 13-pointer, for the boys to see. He killed it Nov. 18 with a shotgun.

Pfc. Johnny Dell Johnson is a typist clerk in Long Binh, Vietnam.

Upon completion of basic training at Fort Polk, Louisiana, Johnson attended the administration course there. He enlisted in April, 1970.

His father is VERDELL JOHNSON, Foundry department, first shift.

LEO BROWN, Maintenance department, first shift, got his limit early in the hunting season, two bucks shot near Mason.

No telling how many people JERRY VANN, Machine Shop, first shift, pulled his snake joke on. R. C. ROBERTS, Yard Crew, first shift, who doesn't like snakes any better than the rest of us, was one of the victims.

If snakes are not your thing, make a wide circle around Jerry, especially if he has a red cloth casually draped over his hand and an unusually angelic expression on his face. (On second thought, if the latter condition exists, cloth or no cloth, give Jerry wide berth anyway—he's up to something.)

Speaking of rubber snakes, our apologies go to LUCY RICHARDSON, who was inadvertently named in the December issue as the victim of a similar snake joke at the Trailer Plant. The victim was JUDY ELDRIDGE.

Navy Seaman Apprentice James E. Hartsfield, brother of LEWIS RAY HARTSFIELD, Welding and Structural Shop, first shift, was graduated from basic training at the Recruit Training Command, Orlando, Florida.

ZACK FENLEY, foreman, Pipe House, wrapped up his deer hunting early in the season with an eight-point buck and a nine-pointer.

CHARLES Allen Wright with his first deer . . . a six-point buck killed with a 12-gauge shotgun. His father is W. D. Wright, Gear Cutters, third shift.

Pfc. Ralph Hendricks, whose father is ARNOLD HENDRICKS, Machine Shop, first shift, has departed for Fort Devens, Massachusetts.

While in basic training, Hendricks successfully passed the U.S. Army Military Academy tests and has been selected to attend West Point.

He was selected for the Army Security Agency by a local recruiter who said that Hendricks is one of the most outstanding men in East Texas due to his remarkable character and devotion to family, church, community and country.

Belated congratulations go to PAT GAMMILL, Trailer Division Sales department, who was named National Champion Amateur Bass Fisherman in October at the Grand National Bass Bonanza Tournament at Millwood Reservoir, Arkansas.

Pat's prizes included an $85 rod and reel, baits, patches for his fishing jacket proclaiming him "champ," and an all-expense paid fishing vacation for two to Georgia.

Also, last November Pat killed two bucks, a spike in Arkansas, while he was at the tournament, and an eight-pointer in Angelina County.

His father, KERMIT GAMMILL, Lufkin Trailer Sales, Shreveport, killed his first deer, a six-point buck.

Navy Seaman Apprentice Morris R. Landrum, son of G. B. LANDRUM, Machine Shop, second shift, participated in recent commissioning ceremonies for the new amphibious force flagship USS Blue Ridge at the Philadelphia Naval Shipyard.

SAM TURNER, Commercial Gears, first shift, killed a six-point buck Nov. 14 in Trinity County. He used a 30-30.

SHELLEY Delaine, 2, and Delanda Joe at three months old . . . father is Dwayne Tullos, Gear Cutters, first shift.

David C. Eastep has been promoted to Army Sergeant upon graduation from the Air Defense Non-commissioned Officers Candidate School, Ft. Bliss, Texas.

Sgt. Eastep, son of CARROLL EASTEPP, Assembly and Shipping department, first shift, is a squad leader in a unit equipped with tracked vehicles, mounted with twin 40MM or quad 50 machine guns.

MIKE CHAMPION, Material Control, went on a two-week hunting trip but we understand all he killed was time.

Congratulations to newlyweds:

MALCOM MCGAUGHEY, Machine Shop, second shift, and his bride, the former Nona Kay Miles, who were married Dec. 23, 1970.

WILLIE WALKER, Assembly and Shipping, first shift, and the former

MRS. WILLIE WALKER

MR. AND MRS. JOE RUSSELL

LOIS MARIE WHEELER, Publications department, who were married Aug. 28, 1970.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe L. Russell, whose wedding was Dec. 19, 1970. His father, DEE RUSSELL, works in the Assembly and Shipping department, first shift.

There are new arrivals in the homes of:

Mr. and Mrs. CHARLIE JACKSON. Their daughter, Regneal Monique, was born Nov. 16 and weighed 7 pounds 8 ounces. Charlie works in the Trailer Division Van Sub Assembly department.

Mr. and Mrs. GARY GREENING. Marvin Norman weighed 7 pounds 5 ounces when he was born Nov. 17. The new father works in Material Control.

DWAYNE Fredregill with baby sister, Kimberly

Mr. and Mrs. ROBERT LAKEY. Jacky Wayne was born Nov. 11 and weighed 7 pounds 12 ounces. His father works in the Trailer Division Dump department.

Mr. and Mrs. JAMES FREDREGILL, whose daughter, Kimberly Ann, was born Oct. 7 and weighed 7 pounds 5 ounces. James works in Commercial Gears, first shift.

Mr. and Mrs. ERIC LONG. Melissa Kay greeted the world Nov. 4, weighing 6 pounds 11 ounces. Her father works in the Trailer Division Industrial Engineering department.

Best wishes to:

ALFRED BLALOCK, Assembly and Shipping, second shift, who had surgery.

Mrs. ELVIN BURRIS, who has been in the hospital. Her husband is a Security Guard at Gate 13.

T. E. ATKINS, Foundry department, first shift, who was in the hospital.

GLENN DAVENPORT, Maintenance department, first shift, who has been in the hospital.

TROY JOHNSON, Welding and Structural Shop, first shift, who was ill.

ELBERT DAVIS JR., Foundry department, first shift, who had surgery.

CORANDO FLORES, Welding and Structural Shop, first shift, who has been ill.

JAMES M. CADDELL, Trailer Division, who has been in the hospital.

EVERETT RHODES, Pattern Shop, who has been in the hospital.

Sympathy is extended to:

JIMMY FREEMAN, second shift, and GEORGE FREEMAN first shift, both Machine Shop, upon the deaths of their mother and sister in an automobile accident Nov. 17.

The family of H. E. CARLISLE, a retired Security Guard, second shift, who died.

CURTIS WILLIAMS, Foundry department, second shift, upon the death of his cousin.

FRED GRIFFIN, Engineering, upon the death of his father.

MELISSA KAY LONG

M. S. POWELL, Foundry department, first shift, upon the death of his aunt.

The family of ALBERT (POP) JOHNSON, retired employee of the Pattern Shop, who died.

LONIELL SOWELL, Foundry department, first shift, whose father died.

JIMMY LAMONT, Traffic department, whose mother died.

DOYLE BENTLEY, Trailer Division, upon the death in his family.

LEAMON BULLOCK, Assembly and Shipping, first shift, whose mother-in-law died.

KELLEY GRIFFIN, Mill Supplies, and JOAN GRIFFIN, Personnel department, upon the death of Kelley's father.

N. L. STRINGER, Foundry department, first shift, upon the death of his

The reason for the black "glob" in the center of this picture is that what was behind it was the Editor. She looked like a twin sister to Hippy out at Ellen Park Zoo and being a woman she exercised her prerogative to discard this one and be in another group. (P.S. She still looks like that twin sister in the other one!)

"Your finances are in terrible shape," the banker stated. "Your checking account is overdrawn, your loan is overdue. Why do you allow your wife to spend more money than you make?"

"Frankly," replied the man with a deep sigh, "because I'd rather argue with you than with her."

A shrewd little starlet married an 80-year-old titled tycoon who could barely navigate but owned 14 sumptuous homes in various corners of the world. She explained demurely, "I love him for his charming manors."

An antique is an object which has made a round-trip to the attic.

This tale from collections of the Big War has to do with a visitor passing through a military hospital and seeing a badly wounded Irish Guard.

"When are you going to send him home?" he asked.

"He isn't going home; he's going up to the front line again," an orderly replied.

"Up to the front!" exploded the visitor. "This man is in terrible shape."

"Yes, sir," added the orderly, "but he thinks he knows who did it."

"George Washington," said the fashion expert, "was the first in war, first in peace and first to wear a wig and white stretch pants with boots."

The happiest ending in the movies is when the guy behind you finishes his popcorn.

In bygone days, when you asked, "Is it a boy or a girl?" you were looking at a baby.

Horse sense: Stable thinking.

He explained that he had to leave the party early . . . his wife was so tired she could hardly keep her mouth open.

The rank of mini skirts in the advancement of technology equals that of the steamboat. Or as Robert Fulton put it, "We no longer have to wait for the wind to blow."

The animal trainer was in the noted producer's office to demonstrate his dog's talents. A scrawny cocker spaniel, the dog ably quoted poetry and climaxed the audition with a medley of operatic arias in perfect pitch.

"Not bad," the producer declared as he leaned forward toward his desk. "Now, let's see her legs."

And it came to pass that newspaper writers fed political question into a computer. They were most impressed with the answers they received. Finally, one asked the machine, "Could a computer ever be president of the United States?"

The machine promptly replied, "I am not now and do not intend to be a candidate for any office. But in the event of a genuine draft, will serve to the best of my ability."

Now there's a helicopter that fits into a garage which is another advantage they have over automobiles.

A tourist in Paris was endeavoring to use his high school French to order lunch. "Garsong," he said, "je desire consomme royal, et un piece of pang et burre—no, hant it—une piece of burr . . ."

"I'm sorry, sir," said the tactful waiter. "I don't speak French."

"Well," snapped the tourist, "for heaven's sake, send someone who does!"

The modern American drinks Brazilian coffee from an English cup while sitting on Danish furniture after coming home from an Italian movie in his German car. Then he picks up a Japanese ball-point pen to write a letter to his congressman demanding that something be done about all the gold that's leaving the country.

The job applicant was struggling over the employment application he was instructed to fill out. On the line asking, "Length of residence at present address," he thought and thought and finally wrote: "About forty feet, not counting the garage."

Little Bobby had a forlorn look on his face. "What's wrong, son?" asked his father.

"Just between you and me, Dad," the boy answered, "I can't get along with your wife."

During a lecture on science the instructor asked one student: "This gas contains poison. What steps would you take if it should by chance escape?"

"Long ones," came the reply.

A woman in Knoxville has a joint checking account arrangement with her husband. If he doesn't get home by 1 a.m. she starts checking all the joints.
